

Position Title:	Certified Occupational Health Nurse (RN)
Employer:	Valor Healthcare
Location:	Blackstone, VA
	We are seeking a COHN to work on a federal contract with Valor Healthcare. Valor Healthcare is a veteran- and physician-led provider of healthcare services for deserving, resilient patriots – including those who serve or have served in the military as well as those who devote their careers to government service. The Certified Occupational Health Nurse (COHN) supports the daily operations of the Medical Department by implementing occupational health and safety programs, providing first aid and treatment for workplace illnesses and injuries, administering immunizations, coordinating employee testing and medical surveillance programs, and maintaining confidential medical records. The role collaborates closely with providers, nursing staff, and safety personnel to promote employee health and workplace safety, ensure compliance with occupational health policies and nursing standards, deliver health education and counseling, and support the continuous improvement of occupational health services and programs. In collaboration with providers, nursing staff, and safety personnel, the COHN will help promote workplace health and safety through employee education, health promotion initiatives, medical surveillance programs, and continuous improvement of occupational health services. This position plays a critical role in supporting the Department's mission to protect the health and well-being of America's diplomatic community and ensure the operational continuity of Foreign Affairs Security Training Center (FASTC) training activities. • Graduate from an accredited RN program • VA RN Licensure • COHN or COHN-S certified • BLS – CPR • A minimum three-years' experience as a RN in a related primary care or ambulatory care setting. • Minimum 1 year of experience as a Occupational Health RN Location and Schedule: This position is located onsite at the FASTC facility in Blackstone, VA. This position is Full – Time. Anticipated hours are M-F 7:30 – 4:30 pm Valor Healthcare offers a competitive benefits and compensation package, generous paid time off and 11 paid federal holidays.
Contact Name:	Christina Duflo
Contact Email:	Christina.duflo@valorhealthcare.com
Contact Phone: (optional):	469-981-7695